

Mary Grondahl, MA, MBA

Mary Grondahl serves as Vice-President for Enrollment Management at The College of Saint Rose. As such, she oversees all undergraduate and graduate student recruitment, admissions and retention at the College. She also oversees the very important financial aid program at Saint Rose. Her work in enrollment planning exceeds 30 years at Saint Rose, making her one of the most senior admission and enrollment management professionals in higher education across the nation. She holds a Bachelor's degree from SUNY Oswego, a Master's degree in Russian from SUNY Albany and an MBA from The College of Saint Rose. She has served and currently serves as a consultant to many colleges and national organizations on areas of enrollment planning, admissions and student financial aid.