

Sandra Casey, Esq.

Sandra is Senior System Counsel for the State University of New York. Prior to her current assignment, she served as general counsel for Siena College. As a seasoned in-house general counsel with over 20 years of experience in higher education law and legislation in both the public and private sector of higher education, Sandra is ideally suited to teach the Law and Higher Education course. She is presently engaged in the implementation of START-UP New York, creating tax free zones for business at SUNY campuses