

Golden Knights Kash and Campus Dining Dollars

Golden Knights Kash and Campus Dining Dollars are both declining balance account programs which can be attached to your Golden Knights ID card. They are both used for on-campus purchases only, and both are non-refundable. Both may be used at all campus dining facilities, including Brubacher Café, Camelot Room, Lally Café (currently closed), Starbucks and the Main Dining Room.

Here is more specific information about each program:

Golden Knights Kash

- In addition to being accepted at campus dining facilities, Golden Knights Kash may also be used to pay for print and copy charges, and for purchases at the Campus Bookstore.
- Purchases made with Golden Knights Kash are taxable.
- Golden Knights Kash balances do not expire (they will roll over each year), and when a student graduates or leaves, any remaining balance over $25.00 will be refunded.
- Enrollment and payment for Golden Knights Kash is completed online at <https://ccenter.strose.edu/OneWeb/Account/LogOn> (parent login/payment is available).
- Funds may be added to your Golden Knights balance (with cash only) at either of the cash value add machines located in the Neil Hellman Library and Picotte Hall.

Campus Dining Dollars

- The Campus Dining Dollars account may only be used for purchases at campus dining facilities.
- For every $100 of Campus Dining Dollars purchased, an additional $10 is added to the Campus Dining Dollars account.
- Campus Dining Dollar purchases are non-taxable.
- Campus Dining Dollars will roll over from the fall to the spring semester, but any unused balance will expire as of June 30th.
- Campus Dining Dollars are added by submitting an order form to the Campus Dining Office, located in the EAC, adjacent to the main dining hall.
- Dining Dollar orders are charged to the student's Saint Rose semester account balance, and are due at the time the charge is processed.
